Re: United States v. Jesse Dabbs, 19 Cr. 700 (VB) – Request for adjournment of plea

Dear Judge Briccetti:

I write to request an adjournment of today's plea to December 28, 2020. The government consents to the adjournment. The plea hearing was originally scheduled for today, December 17, 2020 at 12:00pm. However, Mr. Dabbs received the plea agreement, (sent via priority mail on December 8, 2020) on December 16, 2020. Further, because of technical issues involved in scheduling a video conference with Mr. Dabbs at Orange County Jail, counsel was unable to review the plea agreement or superseding information with Mr. Dabbs prior to today's scheduled plea hearing. After conferring with the Court, counsel requests that the plea be adjourned to December 28, 2020.¹

Finally, motions in limine are scheduled for December 18, 2020 and a final pre-trial conference is scheduled for December 23, 2020. We ask that the Court adjourn those dates, in consideration of a plea in this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,

Karloff C. Commissiong, Esq.

¹ The Court has already found, pursuant to an amended Order dated December 9, 2020, that pursuant to the CARES Act, the plea may take place via telephone conference. See ECF 200.
